

Sandstone Grill is the result of two Midwest girls who dreamed of cooking. Tenise and Tammy are sisters who grew up in St. Paul, NE. After a few years exploring the big cities (Tenise was in Kansas City for 12 years, Tammy was in Seattle for 6 years) they decided to look for culinary opportunities closer to their family.

In the summer of 2005, their aunt mentioned a vacant restaurant in downtown Burwell. They toured the old Burwell Hotel Café and fell in love with the old building and original tin ceilings. They saw the potential to make it into a magnificent destination spot. A business plan was born and the sisters packed up and moved to Burwell in August '05.

After a four month renovation the original tin ceiling was given a great new look and the original hardwood floors were restored. After hours of hard work, the Sandstone Grill has turned into a warm and inviting space where people drive from miles away to taste the fresh home-style meals and enjoy the atmosphere, full bar and large wine selection.
